11. Especially the author's want to say thankyou so much for two beloved parents, my father Abdul Arab Nasution and my mother Hajizah Zan, S.Ag., for every drop of sweat and tears, for love that never diminishes, for hope that never fades, prayer the endless, always proud no matter how many times it disappoints, for the struggle and sacrifice that has been made for the writer so far.
12. For my beloved sister, Dinda Fadhilah Nasution and Rafifah Ashilah Nasution for the support, enthusiasm and attention given.
13. For my uncle, Tulang Agus Salim Zan, Luthfin Zan, Syafrizal Zan, S.T., and Mahmud Zuhri Zan, S.Sos., who has provided advice and facilities while studying at Unimed.
14. To my best friends Daulatta Surbakti, Ghufran Arisyi, and Jecky Bukit and friends in arms from Andi Syahputra S.P. High School, Putri Anju Situmorang, and Mother Siti Rahma. Also from NTP who has given an impression that has never been forgotten, especially with its chairman Teguh Leonardo Meliala. And do not forget also to the greatest women that I am proud of, Rifqa Amaliah, Robiatul Adawiyah and Senja Aquani.
15. All Mathematics Education Study Program 2015 friends are very extraordinary, thank you for 4 years of struggle together that we feel sad, hard, happy and laughing together. Hopefully someday you will be together again.
16. Thank you for friends PPLT 2018 who implemented PPL in SMA N 2 Kisaran for 3 months that we live.

17. Thank you also to the friends of the 2015 Whip Flogging Bilingual Program who have collaborated with the author during the lecture process or outside of the lecture.
18. A woman who accompanied my steps who were struggling. Ladies who do not feel shy and let us grow to support each other until in the end I am comfortable with you, ladies. Even though we've been through it normally, it feels like a cluster of stars twinkling everywhere. O ladies, thank you for everything.
