

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

This study was conducted to describe out the readability level of textbook which consist of seven reading texts in the Bahasa Inggris published by Kementerian Pendidikan dan Kebudayaan in 2014 textbook. To get the data about this, the researcher counting the seven reading texts by using the Flesh-Kincaid Grade Level Formula. The readability of the seven representative texts in in the Bahasa Inggris published by Kementerian Pendidikan dan Kebudayaan in 2014 textbook indicates to the easy style description because the reading texts are readable and understandable to the tenth grade students of Vocational High School and the texts are predicted to be quite easy.

Therefore, the researcher takes a conclusion that this textbook is not appropriate to be used by the students at the tenth grade students of Vocational High School because they can read them by their own and the reading text can be understood by 6th grade students.

B. Suggestion

In relation to the conclusion, suggestions are staged as the following:

1. For the English teachers

It is recommended for the teachers to understand and to know the readability of the reading materials given to their students. Teacher should give more guidance in the reading by developing readiness, helping with the new concept and unfamiliar vocabulary, and providing reading purposes to aid comprehension. While the teachers have authority in choosing textbooks, the teachers should consider the suitability between students reading ability with textbook readability level.

2. For the publishers and the authors

The publishers and the authors are expected to pay attention in producing the better textbooks which appropriate with the level of the students' ability as the good textbook which can help both the teacher and the students to reach the goal of teaching and learning English.

3. For the researchers

The researcher should apply her knowledge about the readability investigation to help teachers of the other subjects in choosing the readable textbook written in English for students. It is suggested for the other researchers to do research related to readability because nowadays, there are many books written in English for various subject matters.
