

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the data, the conclusions are drawn as the following: Based on there search in SMP HKBP Sidorame Medan, itcan be concluded that the writing materials in the available textbook were not suitable to student's level and not interesting for them. The writing materials in the textbook just provides a text about recount while the eighth grade students are still categorized as beginner in writing. The writing materials also has the difficult vocabulary. As the result, they are confused about how theystart the writing process. In addition, they are lacking in vocabulary. Therefore, the existing should be developed so that the students have the suitable English writing materials which will support their learning activity and increase their knowledge in writing Recount text. In developing the suitable writing Recount materials, the researcher use comic strips.

B. Sugestion

In relation to the conclusion, the sugestions are as the following:

1. Teacher

The English teachers are encouraged to use various interesting materials. English teachers can develop their own media by following the steps used by the researcher. The process is started by doing needs analysis to expert judgment. Therefore, the researcher hopes that hose new writing materials an be use by the students to add and supply their knowledge in studying recount text.

2. Students

Students can find the materials that meet their need and level from some sources like internet or the other English textbook if the existing materials are not suitable to their need and level.

3. Institution/School Parties

The institution/School Parties should supervise the teachers and ensure them that the writing materials support the teaching and learning process. The institution/ School Parties also should find the books which are match to the students' needs and level. A number of references of English writing materials also have to be increased to facilitate the students in learning English.

4. For other researchers

It is expected that the other researchers who have the same interest in this field could make more interesting materials. They should provide some activities that make students more interested in learning writing. The other researchers also should find many references to support in developing writing materials. The questions in questionnaire should be considered to give the students' chance to deliver their wants in learning English specifically in writing skill.
