

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. CONCLUSIONS

After the data of Baby's dialogues had been analyzed, conclusion were drawn as follow.

1. The types of personality traits which represented by Baby in Baby Driver movie. The types were Intro/Extrovert (25%), Neuroticism (18%), Conscientiousness (16%), Openness to Experience (21%), and Agreeableness (20%).
2. Therefore each of personality traits was filtered by using the perlocutionary act from the speech act. Thus, from Representative, Directive, Commissive, Expressive, and Declarative, the writer used them to be a tool to know where to put each of the act and classify them into the Big Five Theory.

B. SUGGESTIONS

There are several suggestions that writer could offer to readers towards personality traits learning, they are.

1. It is suggested to the further reasearchers who want to make wider exploration on Personality Traits which is important in learning character and characterization of a person, whether it is from a movie or real person.

2. For everyone who reads this study, especially teenager. it is suggested to increase and develop the study to enrich the understanding of character and characterization learning.
3. For the future student of English and Literature Department who wants to conduct the similar researchs, it is suggested to add more complete materials, studies, and analysis, yet the writer feels this thesis is way from perfect.
