

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter consists of conclusions and suggestions. After analysing the utterances of three women characters in Divergent movie, the researcher makes some conclusions and suggestions.

A. Conclusion

After analysing the data that show the types of feminism and role of women in three women characters, it is concluded that:

1. There are 3 types of feminism in three women character in Divergent movie, they are : 5 statements that are included in liberal feminism, while liberal feminism is the way to accommodate women to get the same capacity as men. This statement can be seen from all the women character that being analysed in this research. Another statements are included in radical feminism, there are 12 statements said by three women character from the data. Most of the utterances from this type of feminism are said by the main women character, Tris Prior, as known as the person that declared for every women and men should have the same opportunity and capacity in their society. The last 3 statements are included in anarchist feminism. The statement that are included in anarchist statement are the statements that attempts to criticize, envision, and plan. All of 3 statements that included in anarchist feminism are to criticize the system in their society.

2. The role of women that can be found from three women character in Divergent movie was the role of women in domestic sector. It can be found in the character of Natalie Prior as wife and a mother in this movie, and also the role of women in public sector that shown by the women character who does the same job with the men in society

B. Suggestion

Referring to the results of the analysis, there are some suggestions as follows:

1. The readers should be able to read more literary works especially book or journal to find out more information about types of feminism and roles of women. By reading more literary works, it will increase their knowledge so they can distinguish feminism types.
2. The lectures especially for English and literature department should give more explanations about types of feminism and roles of women, and the theories related to feminism.
3. The researcher of this research hopes that the next researcher analyses deeper on feminism from literary works.

The movie maker especially in Indonesia needs to make or produce more movie that show about heroine, because there are only few movie show heroine as the main character.
