

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

After analysing and describing the symbols in the movie, there were some point that can be concluded as presented below:

1. The symbols in the Toba Batak tribe are important for Toba people. There were 15 symbols found in the 'Toba Dreams' movie. Those symbols were red, white, black, mountain, lake, north, west, buffalo, pig, goldenfish, tomb, bolon house, laying hands, throwing soil and horas.
2. The application of all symbols from Toba Dreams movie can be seen in various ways. For the colour symbol red, black and white can be seen from the ulos that appear in the film. Types of symbols that appear such as direction(north and west), nature(mountain and lake), animal (buffalo, pig and goldenfish), location (tomb, bolon house) are interpreted by means of condensation point of view in the movie. And for types of gesture (laying hands and throwing soil) and word (horas), are interpreted by making a situation.
3. Each symbol has its own meaning. For the Toba people, a symbol can be taught to manipulate symbols with formal mathematical and logical rules. The capacity of symbolic meaning grounded in the ability of internally represent number, logical relationship, philosophy, and a modal fashion. An ideology and collective agreement also play a role in bringing up meaning in a symbol. Ideology exists as long as culture exists.

B. Suggestion

1. By understanding the theory its very important to help the reader to distinguish and look for the true meaning of all the symbol in every culture, because sometimes differences in perception and culture will greatly make the meaning obtained is very different.
2. The benefits for future researchers that, this research will be provided more information about symbols features. This research provide the information for futher research about cultural symbolization in movie.
3. For the Batak Toba people, especially young generation are expected to understand the meaning of the symbols in their culture and also understand that, they can get information about culture, not just from a book, but there is a good content or knowledge that they can get from a movie
