

ABSTRACT

Simanjuntak, Pebruarika Nova, 2132220012. Language formality on TV Program ‘Satu Indonesia Net TV’. A Thesis, English and Literature Department, Faculty of Language and Arts, State University of Medan. 2020.

This study deal with Language Formality used on TV program ‘Satu Indonesia Net TV’. The objectives of this study were to find out the level of the language and describe the language formality in TV program. This research was conducted by using descriptive qualitative Method. The data were the dialogues in program ‘Satu Indonesia’ special episode August 12th 2016 and 17th December 2016 which was taken from YouTube. The findings indicated that there were four level of formalities found on Program Satu Indonesia. There were 4,87% Frozen level, 31% Formal level, Consultative level 21,95 and 18,85% Casual level. The most dominant level that is used by the figures in this program was Formal Level. It explained that, the figures from political scale also used the language formality based on the context and the situation that is held in a conversation.

Keywords: Language Formality, Frozen, Formal, Consultative, Casual, Satu Indonesia, Net TV

