

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

After the analyzing the data of Acehnese Poem by Teuku Abdullah Sakti's, conclusions are drawn as follows :

1. The first part deal with analyzing of statement, Question, Command and Offer from each kind of poem. From all 32 clauses presented in the first poem that titled "dara malaih", found 29 clauses of statement, 1 clauses of question, 2 clauses of command and has no offer elements inside of the poem. While in the second poem that titled "Doda-idi" found 36 clauses consists of 26 clauses of statement, 7 clauses of command, 3 clauses of offer and has no question clauses inside of it. In the third poem that titled "Aceh Leubeh Peng" there were 64 clauses consist of 55 clauses of statement, 5 clauses of question, 1 clauses of command and 3 clauses of offer, whereas 36 clauses found in fourth poem that titled "timang-timbang" consists of 18 clauses of statement, 10 clauses of command, 8 clauses of offer and has no question elements inside of this poem. From the number above, it can be concluded that there were 168 clauses of Acehnese poem by Teuku Abdullah sakti, 128 of them are statements, 5 of question, 20 of command and 14 clauses of offers.

2. The speech function of statement, question, and command are realized in the mood by declarative which is realized as Subject + Finite, interrogative and imperative clauses which is realized as Finite + Subject in which statement were most naturally expressed by declarative clauses; question by interrogative clauses; and command by imperative clauses. They were different from 'offer' which did not have an unmarked representation of mood.
3. First, based on the analysis of the poem, the researcher believed that by initiating statement, the author gives new information about Aceh and its culture. Second, Based on the analysis of the poem, the researcher believed that by initiating question, can make the readers realize something related to the topic. In this sentence, instead of asking a question or demanding information, the author can make the readers realize about related topics. Third, Based on the analysis of the poem, the researcher believed that by initiating command, can interfere the readers to do something. The author tried to interfere the readers mind by initiating this command. If the readers read this poem, at least the readers realize about the command which is conveyed by the author

B. Suggestions

In relation to the conclusion, suggestion are staged as the following.

1. The result of the research are suggested to be used as the references for the researches who will conduct the same topict or research using speech function theory or combination theories to enrich the knowledge and variances of literary work.

2. Speech function is suggested to be used as a material of the study in class that examines in every field of context.
3. In addition, the values of language is used in human life. The linguistic such speech function terms are very applicable to be used in analyzing the more complexity of language in human daily life

