

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

All praise and gratitude are due to Allah SWT, The Most Gracious and The Most Merciful, for bestowing upon him the ability to successfully complete this dissertation. Gratitude is also extended to the revered prophet, Muhammad SAW, whose teachings have illuminated the path from ignorance to enlightenment. I wish to extend my gratitude to the Rector of UNIMED, Prof. Dr. Baharuddin, S. T., M.Pd., and the Director of the Post-graduated School, Prof. Dr. Bornok Sinaga, M.Pd., along with Prof. Amrin Saragih, M. A., Ph. D., the head of the English Applied Linguistics Study Program of the Doctoral Degree, for warmly embraced me into the program and consistently provided unflinching moral support. I also extend my deepest gratitude to Prof. Dr. Agussani, M. AP., the Rector of UMSU, for his exceptional support in making this work possible.

With all of my heart, I would also like to express great appreciation to my promotor, Prof. Dr. Sri Minda Murni, M. S., as well as to co-promotor, Dr. Anni Holila Pulungan, M. Hum., for their unwavering dedication and support during the challenging times to complete this scholarly endeavor. Their mentorship and backing with insights and significant contributions proved pivotal in shaping the outcome of this research endeavor. Those insightful ideas made enormous impacts on the successful culmination of this dissertation. Furthermore, it is with the utmost humility that I extend my sincerest gratitude to the esteemed examiners, Prof. Amrin Saragih, M. A., Ph. D., Prof. Dr. T. Silvana Sinar, M. A., Ph. D., Prof. Dr. Sumarsih, M. Pd, and Prof. Ni Nyoman Padmadewi, M. A., Ph. D., for their invaluable comments and suggestions on this dissertation. I am truly grateful for their time and expertise in providing me with guidance and feedback that have greatly contributed to the progress of this research. Additionally, I would like to humbly acknowledge and express my deep appreciation to all the lecturers of English applied linguistics of the Doctorate Degree at the Postgraduate School of the State University of Medan, whose consistent support and mentorship have been instrumental in shaping my academic pursuit, and together with the dedicated staff who have generously offered extensive technical support and guidance throughout the process of accomplishing this intricate scientific endeavor.

I am immensely grateful to my dear parents, Kumpal Ginting (late) and Dame Sagala, as well as my parents-in-law, Endra, S. Pd., and Rohaniah, for their unswerving love, and heartfelt prayers and support throughout my academic journey and the challenges of completing this scholarly work. A deeply heartfelt gratitude is also dedicated to my beloved wife, Yenni Hasnah, S.Pd., M.Hum., for her genuine love, moral support, and technical assistance throughout those arduous years. She is the beacon of light that guided me through the darkness, the rock on which I found strength, and the source of endless love that fueled my journey. Along with that, the steadfast faith and hope instilled in me by my sons, Harith Alfatih Hafig Ginting, Alif Adhyastha Hafig Ginting, and Mahardika Assyauqi Hafig Ginting, have been the driving force behind my perseverance and have made the impossible possible. Their presence has been a constant source of inspiration, motivation, and joy, making every step of the way a little easier and more meaningful.

Countless expressions of gratitude are also extended to my relatives and friends at the Doctoral of English Applied Linguistics Study Program, the State University of Medan, and colleagues at the English Language Education Study Program of the Faculty of Teacher Training and Education, Universitas Muhammadiyah Sumatera Utara for their profound empath, uplifting prayers, and invaluable moral encouragement amidst times of adversity and trials. It goes without saying that, it is crucial to acknowledge the immense gratitude I feel towards the individuals listed earlier, as they have imparted invaluable knowledge and wisdom to me; nonetheless, it must be emphasized that the burden of any inaccuracies or oversights present in this dissertation ultimately lies solely on my shoulders.
