B. Suggestion

There are several suggestions that the writer could offer to the reader towards Semiotic analysis in song lyrics, they were:

1. It is suggested to the next writer who want to make a wider exploration to analyze song lyrics by semiotic theory Roland Barthes that came up with the oneself conclusion in the beginning until the end of the study.

2. As a reference to the next study. It is also important that data of the next study convert into other sources data such as a movie, novel or drama.

3. For anyone who read this study, especially student, it is suggested to increase and develop the theory. There were still many aspects that can be studied about analyze song lyrics and YouTube comments. For sustainability for this study, it was hoped that the other writers collect more articles, books, and journals about semiotic and Audience response.

4. For future researchers can explore more deeply the implied meaning of the words in another Beyonce' song because it can be seen that a lot of the use of words in Beyonce' song lyrics use symbols.
