

PREFACE

All praise and gratitude are devoted to Almighty God for His grace, love, and guidance, through which the writer was able to complete this undergraduate thesis entitled “The Development of Problem-Solving Test with Cultural Context Using the Quizizz Application on Temperature and Heat Material at SMA Negeri 7 Medan.” This thesis is submitted as one of the requirements for obtaining a Bachelor’s Degree in Education in the Physics Education Study Program, Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Universitas Negeri Medan.

The completion of this thesis has been a long journey filled with learning processes, challenges, tears, and prayers. The writer fully realizes that this thesis could not have been completed without the guidance, assistance, prayers, and support from many parties. Therefore, with sincere gratitude and humility, the writer would like to express her deepest appreciation to:

1. Prof. Dr. Baharuddin, S.T., Rector of Universitas Negeri Medan.
2. Dr. Ani Sutiani, M.Si., Dean of the Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Universitas Negeri Medan, along with all members of the faculty administration.
3. Dr. Yuni Warty, S.Pd., M.Si., Head of the Physics Department; Budiman Nasution, S.Pd., M.Si., Secretary of the Physics Department; and Sabani, S.Pd., M.Si., Head of the Physics Education Study Program, Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Universitas Negeri Medan.
4. Prof. Dr. Makmur Sirait, M.Si., as the thesis supervisor, for his patience, sincerity, dedication, guidance, motivation, constructive criticism, and invaluable support throughout the research and writing process.
5. Dr. Rahmatsyah, M.Si., as the academic advisor, for his guidance and support during the writer’s academic journey at Universitas Negeri Medan.
6. Prof. Drs. Motlan, M.Sc., Ph.D., Muhammad Aswin Rangkuti, S.Pd., M.Pd., and Dr. Ridwan Abdullah Sani, M.Si., as the examiners, for their insightful suggestions, critiques, and guidance that greatly improved this thesis.

7. The writer expresses sincere gratitude to SMA Negeri 7 Medan for the permission, cooperation, and support provided during the research process.
8. Dr. Yul Ifda Tanjung, M.Pd., and Sabani, S.Pd., M.Si., as expert validators of the test instruments, for their valuable evaluations and recommendations.
9. All lecturers of the Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Universitas Negeri Medan, for the knowledge, guidance, and experiences shared throughout the writer's years of study.
10. With the deepest love and gratitude, the writer dedicates her heartfelt appreciation to her beloved parents, Mansur Ady Putra Siregar as her father and Leli Suriani as her mother. No words will ever be sufficient to describe the depth of their sacrifices, patience, and unconditional love. From prayers whispered in silence, from sleepless nights filled with worry, to strength given even when they themselves were tired, every part of this journey has been supported by their unwavering presence. They taught the writer to remain strong in moments of weakness, to keep walking when the path felt heavy, and to believe even when the destination seemed distant. When the writer doubted her own abilities, they believed without hesitation. When exhaustion took over, they never stopped praying. This thesis is not merely an academic achievement; it is a reflection of their love, endurance, and hopes. Every page carries their sacrifices, and every success reached is a continuation of the dreams they entrusted to the writer with sincere hearts.
11. To the writer's beloved younger brothers, Arpan Saleh Martua Siregar and Ichfan Mora Hasudungan Siregar, thank you for being the reason the writer chose to stand firm when giving up felt easier. In silence, you offered strength; in simple togetherness, you gave meaning. Your presence serves as a constant reminder that this struggle is not only for today, but also for a future the writer hopes to build alongside you.

12. With sincere affection, the writer extends her deepest gratitude to the extended family from her father's side. To the late Opung Kardinuddin Siregar (Opung Kukus) and the late Opung Yusra Dalimunthe (Opung Munthe), although your physical presence has departed, the prayers, values, and life lessons you left behind continue to live and guide the writer's steps. The writer also expresses heartfelt thanks to kakak Nurhamida, the late kakak Sari Anna, and kakak Mastur; Bou Suryani and Amangboru Yasir; Bou Masna and Amangboru Rahmat; Bou Masni and Amangboru Firman; Udak Pangundian and Nanguda Erni; Bou Kiki and Amangboru Asrul; Amangboru Dedek; Amangboru Taslim and family; as well as all beloved cousins Winda, Alya, Pinta, Gita, Mirza, Anggi, Kaila, Zehan, Rifa, and Yusna, and all other family members who cannot be mentioned individually. Your prayers, advice, love, and warmth have always been a home to return to and a source of strength that enables the writer to continue moving forward.
13. With sincere gratitude, the writer also thanks the extended family from her mother's side. To the late Grandfather Djafar Duha and Grandmother Sunenti, the love, values, and guidance you instilled will forever remain alive in the writer's memory and journey. The writer also expresses appreciation to tulang Iran Duha, Uwak Erni, Uwak Lina, cousin Haidil, and all other family members who cannot be mentioned individually. The prayers, care, and support given by the family have served as quiet strength and constant encouragement throughout the writer's academic journey.
14. To the writer's childhood best friend, Nuraifah Siagian, thank you for being a place of comfort, a faithful listener, and a companion through joy and sorrow since the earliest days.
15. To the writer's beloved friends since senior high school, Husna, Radha, and Shania, thank you for the shared laughter, support, and memories that have strengthened the writer along the way.

16. To the writer's university friends, Debora, Ezra, Shofia, and Yenji, thank you for being loyal companions in both academic struggles and personal growth throughout this journey.
17. To all friends of PESP 2021, thank you for the togetherness, struggles, and stories that have become invaluable parts of the writer's academic life.
18. Finally, to myself, thank you for choosing to endure. Thank you for continuing to walk even when the steps felt heavy, for believing even when doubt grew loud, and for holding onto dreams despite the pain of the process. Every tear, whispered prayer, and silent night has finally found its meaning on the last pages of this thesis. This work stands as proof that the writer was able to face fear, uncertainty, and exhaustion—and still arrive at the end.

The writer realizes that this thesis is not without limitations. Therefore, constructive criticism and suggestions are highly welcomed for future improvement. Hopefully, this thesis can provide meaningful contributions to the field of education, particularly in physics learning.

Medan, January 15th, 2026
Author,

Shefty Yuliani Siregar
IDN. 421112106